

Categorical Index for Community Resources 2007

The following are groups of resources in general categories to assist with identifying specific services for clients. For more information, detailed descriptions of community resources are in alphabetical order with the name of the agency/program in the Community Resource Guide for pregnant women and infants.

Basic Needs

- 211, Volunteer Center
- AIM (in Albion)
- Department of Human Services
- Food Pantry network (access through 211)
- Showers for Blessings
- Cribs: Pack 'n Play
- CAN Council for Carseats
- Charitable Union
- Salvation Army
- Haven of Rest
- SAFE Place

Breastfeeding Education/Resources

- BCHS
- Oaklawn
- WIC
- Calhoun County Extension
- LaLeche

Child Care

- Child Care Resources
- CARE Program

Early Childhood Education

- CAA, Head Start
- CARE Program
- CISD

Health Care:

- BCHS
- Oaklawn Hospital
- Family Health Center
- Gentiva Health Services
- Lifespan
- Calhoun County Health Department
- CALHOUN Health Plan
- Planned Parenthood

Mental Health/ Behavioral Health

Summit Pointe
Oaklawn Hospital Perinatal Loss Support Group

Nutrition

Calhoun County Extension
WIC
211 Food Pantry Network

Parenting Information:

BCPS Alternative Education Program for Pregnant Teens
Family and Children's Services (Teen Parenting Program, Healthy Connections, Parent Infant Program)
Fatherhood Program/CAA
Infant Safe Sleep Resources: RHA, Calhoun County Extension, 211 (Cribs)

Substance Abuse Services

Central Diagnostic and Referral Services, Inc. (CDRS)
Substance Abuse Prevention Coalition (prevention only)

Transportation

Several programs offer limited transportation assistance for their clients (Family and Children's Services, Gentiva, Health Department CSHCS program). Medicaid Managed care plans offer transportation services to enrollees for medical appointments, the contact phone number is usually on the back of the Medicaid health plan card.

Women's Empowerment

Women's Co-op
YWCA Mentoring Program