

Jeffrey P. Letzer, D.O.

Medical Oncology & Hematology
The Cancer Care Center
Battle Creek Health System
300 North Avenue
Battle Creek, MI 49017

Jeffrey P. Letzer, D.O. is a medical oncologist at The Cancer Care Center at Battle Creek Health System. He is affiliated with Mercy Community Physicians, a multi-specialty practice.

A graduate of the College of William and Mary, Dr. Letzer earned his medical degree at Michigan State University College of Osteopathic Medicine. He completed his residency in internal medicine from Doctors Hospital in Columbus, Ohio. He received fellowships from Rush-Presbyterian-St. Lukes Medical Center in hematology and from Loyola University Medical Center in medical oncology, both in Chicago.

Dr. Letzer has published his research under the titles of 'How to treat the patient with relapsed NHL,' 'Hodgkin's disease,' 'Perifosine in ... second- or third-line metastatic colon cancer,' and 'Scurvy ... in the 21st century,' to name a few. He has had six abstract or article publications within the last two years.

Dr. Letzer is a board certified Diplomate in medical oncology, hematology, and internal medicine. He serves as a clinical investigator for the National Surgical Adjuvant Breast and Bowel Project, the National Cancer Institute, and the Eastern Cooperative Oncology Group, and has been a principal investigator in numerous pharmaceutical research protocols.

He is a member of American Society of Clinical Oncology, American Society of Hematology, International Society of Thrombosis and Hemostasis, American and Michigan Osteopathic Associations, and the Michigan Society of Hematology & Oncology.

Battle Creek Health System, accredited by the Joint Commission on the Accreditation of Healthcare Organizations, provides excellent health care and wellness for the whole person through teamwork, with access and compassion for all. For the latest medical information, visit the BCHS web site at www.bchs.org or call the BCHS Marketing Department at (269) 245-8132.